
BOLLIBOLLE

BY BAROVIER&TOSO

COLLECTION DESCRIPTION

The Bollibolle vase, designed by Franco Raggi in 1994 and launched in 1995, is a perfect alchemy of tradition and innovation. With its oval cross-section, it stands out for its elegant ribbing and a unique texture of transparent bubbles and milky-white glass spots that dance together, generating a play of light and shadow, lending the vase depth and dynamism. The transparency of the glass adds a touch of pure elegance, while the evenly distributed white spots lend movement and vitality. A work of art that enriches any space with a touch of originality, embodying the Venetian glassmaking tradition in a modern and refined guise.
