A bowl is an essential everyday element of our home life: a pleasure to hold, ergonomic, and practical. We took that fundamental form as the basis for our collection of Bowl Stools, each carved from a solid block of wood, with counter and bar versions incorporating subtly sculpted seating elements, and a dining height edition with a flat surface, allowing it to double as a side table. Each of the three designs feature legs shaped as perfect elegant ellipses, conceived to contrast with the broader, architectural dish shape of the seat above.
