

CEREMONIAL HEAD I

BY PETER BOIGER

COLLECTION DESCRIPTION

German-born Peter Boiger has been a sculptor for over 50 years. He began working with wood at his grandfather's carpentry shop followed by apprenticeships in Burghausen and Munich. After his studies in Berkley, his figurative and abstract work expanded from wood to bronze and stone. Boiger taught sculpture at the Bezalel Academy in Jerusalem and participated in creating Valley of the Destroyed Communities, a Holocaust monument at Yad Vashem. His public art sculptures can be seen in Santa Rosa and the city of Napa. Limited Edition 4 of 10.
