DIAMANTE

BY BAROVIER&TOSO

COLLECTION DESCRIPTION

The Diamante vase, a scintillating gem presented at the XXXIV Venice Art Biennale in 1968, embodies the quintessence of Murano glass art. Characterized by square-sectioned reliefs, available in a palette of various colors and embellished with gold leaf, this vase represents a sublime blend of tradition and innovation. Meticulously crafted, every detail of the Diamante Vase is hand-chiseled, and its surface dances with light thanks to a veil of gold leaf that captures and refracts the rays, enhancing the vibrant hues of the glass. Available in different exclusive colors, each vase is a statement of elegance, destined to infuse a sense of refined beauty into any space it adorns.
