

GRAND TOUR FIGURE OF THE DISCOBOLUS AFTER MYRON

BY COUP XX

COLLECTION DESCRIPTION

A finely modeled patinated bronze reduction of the ancient Discobolus, depicting the idealized athlete poised to release the discus. The dynamic figure is supported by a naturalistically rendered tree trunk and raised on a circular marble base. Created for the Grand Tour market, the sculpture reflects the 19th-century fascination with the art and mythology of classical antiquity.

ORIGIN

Italy

TIME

Mid-19th Century

DIMENSIONS

7.75" W x 5.5" D x 14.25" H

ITEM NUMBER

AC-XX-0726-05