

HONEYCOMB LIGHT SCULPTURE #281

BY PATRICK WEDER

COLLECTION DESCRIPTION

United States
Contemporary

Patrick Weder's Honeycomb Light Sculptures are inspired by the idea of transforming industrial materials into natural forms.

No two Honeycomb Light Sculptures are alike. Weder hand sculpts the signature shapes from galvanized steel wire and then applies many layers of recycled paper by hand, both inside and out, to form these striking Honeycomb forms.

The Honeycomb Light Sculptures can be modified as a Tabletop Lamp with the addition of a bespoke Wooden Stand or as a Ceiling Mounted Chandelier with the addition of a Blackened Brass or Polished Brass hanging structure.

Dimensions (As Shown): 43" W x 32" D x 36"H | 7' drop to the bottom of the fixture

Suspension: 1 rod; single canopy
Lamping: E26 Medium Ceramic Socket for use with LED Bulbs only (LED Globe - Tala Sphere III - E26, White)
