KERALA AQUA

BY OCHRE WILD

COLLECTION DESCRIPTION

Contemporary
Bengal

The Ochre Wild collection consists of handmade, naturally dyed rugs that are made in Bengal using centuries-old techniques. A rich variety of fibers and natural dyes are used for both the Indo-Tibetan and our flat-weave Dhurrie rugs.

Handwoven flatweave rug in Jute.

Dimensions (As Shown): 73" W x 118" L | Custom Sizes Available.
Item Number: OC-RUG-KERALA AQUA

Price: Price Upon Request

Please Note: Natural dyes can vary from batch to batch and will change naturally over time based on use and exposure to sunlight. Each rug will not be the same in its color effect; some discrepancies in sizes might occur. Fibers should be treated with care, and heavy vacuum cleaning should be avoided.
