

LYMAN SETTEE

BY BRENT WARR

COLLECTION DESCRIPTION

Contemporary
United States

Crafted by hand, the Lyman Settee is a playful yet demanding presence that explores a new way of thinking in regards to turn of the century Victorian furniture. Torn down, re-built, and formed, this settee is a unique functional art piece constructed from discarded Victorian era furniture.

The Lyman Settee is made from a complex plaster, pulp, and black paint mix and upholstered in a rust velvet by COUP STUDIO FABRIC.
