

COUP D'ETAT

Rachel Floor Lamp by Brent Warr

Contemporary

United States

With its monolithic stature and softly tapered silhouette, the Rachel floor lamp is a modern assemblage of form and whimsy. Constructed of a metal and wood form with a layered plaster, wood pulp, and paint mix, this piece can be seen as a focal and functional art piece in any living room.

With its slender shape, it may be seen tucked in a reading nook shedding light on the user below. Each piece is unique and made to order and is available in either stark white or custom colors.
