Splat Lamp 22
by Daniel Shapiro

Contemporary

United States

The Splat Lamp's shade and base are individually hand-built in Shapiro's studio. Once constructed and partially dried, three stained clay slips are catapulted at each form in layers, creating a color approach that feels simultaneously purposeful and left to chance. Once fired, 24k gold overglaze is hand-painted onto the surfaces and fired again, creating the effect of a gold explosion across both pieces.
